

2008 Parade

The 25th Annual Southern Maine Christmas Parade scheduled for Sunday, December 14, 2008 was cancelled because of severe ice storms. Local municipal services were busy trying to provide emergency services for those who lost power or had other damages due to fallen trees and tree limbs. With much regret, we decided to cancel the parade in the interest of public safety.