We wish to thank everyone that was involved in the 37th Annual Wells Christmas Parade on Sunday, December 11. Brrrr was the comment of the day although we're glad it wasn't snowing!! We continue to be grateful for the number of participants involved in the parade as well as the spectators!

Unfortunately, our videographer was down with the flu on Sunday, so we do not have a video this year. We had a local photographer taking pictures, so we'll be more than happy to share those on the Parade web site (www.wellschristmasparade.com) once we have possession.
